Birding in Wowetta

Cock of the Rock

Wowetta

Where the rain forest meets the savannah, lays the beautiful community of Wowetta. The Guyana Cock of the Rock Trail is a great place to view this beautiful bright bird in it's natural habitat. The trail begins at the entrance to the rainforest and is a flat 8km round trip.

Aranaputa Mountain Hike

Aranaputa

Situated in a stunning valley basin, Aranaputa offers guests the best in warm Rupununi hospitality.

A mountain hike to 1600ft provides amazing views and opportunities to see mammals and birds. Horseback rides into the habitat of the giant anteater are also available, and a visit is not complete without a tour of the Women's Co-op Peanut Butter Factory.

School Children in Annai

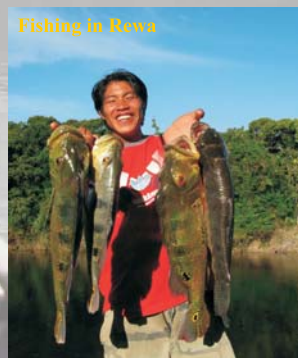

Central administrative centre to the region, Annai is home to the largest thatched benab in Guyana. An interactive tour of this picturesque hill top village with traditional clay brick homes makes Annai the perfect place for a cultural walking tour.

Fishing in Rewa

Rewa

Victoria Amazonica, Rewa

Where the Rupununi and the Rewa Rivers meet, this unique community is an undiscovered jewel.

Incredible birding, wildlife, fishing, river tours, and unforgettable cultural experiences make Rewa a great destination for adventure travelers.

Stay at Rewa's fully equipped eco-lodge or go on a multiple day river expedition into Jaguar country.
